

LEGAL NOTICE

Royal Deluxe Edition • Official UKJ community document

Virtual microstate and community project • legal explanation

Core statement

UKJ is a virtual microstate and community project. It is not an internationally recognized state and does not issue official government documents.

Purpose of the document Legal status

Explains the legal and community nature of UKJ and protects members and the public from misunderstanding.

UKJ does not exercise state power and does not act as an internationally recognized sovereign state.

Use of documents

UKJ documents are symbolic, internal, community-based and digital in nature.

1. Nature of UKJ

- UKJ is a virtual microstate and community project.
- UKJ exists for symbolic identity, digital membership and community activities.
- UKJ is not an internationally recognized sovereign state.
- UKJ has no authority to replace the public institutions of any state.

2. What UKJ does not issue and what it may issue

UKJ documents are not

- a national identity card
- a passport or travel document
- a driving licence
- a visa, residence permit or official state certificate

UKJ documents may be

- symbolic membership documents
- internal community confirmations
- digital membership cards
- documents intended for the UKJ community and website

Important note: Any use of UKJ documents must remain truthful, transparent and must not mislead third parties.

UKJ Legal Notice

Restrictions, responsibility and signatures

3. Prohibition of misrepresentation4. Responsibility

- UKJ documents may not be presented as state-issued documents
- no one may claim that UKJ issues official government documents
- UKJ documents may not be used for official procedures or formal identification

- the user is responsible for truthful and proper use of UKJ documents
- UKJ may update, revoke or refuse a document in case of misuse
- this document is not legal advice and is not an official statement of any state

5. Final provisions

UKJ is not an internationally recognized state.

This legal notice is intended to protect UKJ, its members and the public from misunderstanding. All UKJ documents have a community, symbolic, digital and internal character. The current version of this document prevails over older versions.

6. Signature section - document issued and approved by

Document issued by

Name and title PRIME GOVERNMENT

Signature H.M. King Aurelian I.

Date 9.5.2026

Document approved by

Name and title GOVERNMENT

Signature Lushim

Date 10.5.2026

